PROJECTS

JUN 2024

Network Scanner Web Application This project involves creating a web-based network scanning tool that allows users to scan and analyze network connections. The primary goal was to help users monitor network devices and connections through a user-friendly interface. The application is built usingFlask for the backend and employs modern frontend technologies like HTML and JavaScript for an interactive user experience.

Successfully deployed a fully functional web-based application, enabling users to efficiently scan and analyze their networks.

1 MAR 2025

Emotion Detector Web Application Developed the backend functionality in Python using Flask for image processing and emotion detection.

Created the front-end using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to build a responsive and intuitive user interface.

Implemented real-time emotion detection via webcam integration.

Tested the system to ensure accurate emotion detection results.

Predicting Flight Delays : Predict flight delays over 15 minutes.

Model: Random Forest Classifier, 80/20 train-test split.

Evaluation: Accuracy 84%, high precision for non-delayed flights.

Challenges: Imbalance in dataset (more non-delayed flights).

Improvements: Address class imbalance, try Gradient Boosting or XGBoost.

Implementation of Naive Bayes and Advanced Models in Machine Learning This repository contains the implementation of fundamental and advanced machine learning classification models, specifically focusing on Naive Bayes, Random Forest, and Support Vector Machines (SVM). The notebook guides learners through each phase of the machine learning pipeline—from exploratory data analysis to dimensionality reduction and model evaluation.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Dr. Sohail Khan Associate Professor and Acting Director, SPCAI

I have known Obaidullah Miakhil for several years during his time as a student at PAF-IAST.

He is an exceptional individual, demonstrating technical expertise in AI and Machine Learning, particularly in applying these skills to real-world problems such as Medical AI Assistants for Insurance Claim Denial Prediction.

He has shown strong problem-solving skills, leadership, and an ability to integrate complex AI models into practical applications.

I strongly recommend Obaidullah for graduate studies in Data Science due to his solid foundation in AI, high-performance computing, and data analytics.
